

The Grace Episcopal Church Americana Concert Series

May 21st @ 7pm with:

A couple of couples....

-Carol and Dale-

-Lisa Jones & Bill Bromfield-

Concert benefits Hope House

Carol and Dale have a sound that is a unique blend of harmonies, creative guitar work, and out of the ordinary lyrics. It is a sound that has been evolving for over 20 years. Husband and wife team, Dale Whitehead and Carol Warren, began playing music together in Richmond, Va. In 1994 they moved to Nashville, TN, where they continue to play as a duo, collaborating with a wide variety of other musicians. Their first ep "Read the Signs" came out in 2005, and features the hit "Hey Shy Paula." Their new album is "Legacy" and features cover art by their daughter, Anna Whitehead. Carol and Dale also host an annual music festival at their u-pick berry farm called The Blackberry Jam. www.theblackberryjam.com

Lisa and Bill started blending their vocals, guitar styles and song-writing in the Washington D.C. area where they released their first CD, "On The Edge" with their band, The Cause. Performances in the Mid-Atlantic and New England followed the release of their second CD, "Earth" as an acoustic duo. Lisa and Bill also write educational science music for adults and health songs for children.

"Jones and Bromfield are sort of free-verse roots-pop, a mix of relaxed folk, natural gospel and jazz delivered with passionate conviction for a holistic, artistic virtue."

- The Washington Post

"(Their) music is part folk, part pop. wrapped in Bromfield's intricate guitar work and carried by Jones' strong, expressive vocals."

- The Charlotte Observer

A free will offering will be accepted at the concert. All proceeds will benefit Hope House in Columbia which provides help and hope for victims of Domestic Violence. More info on Hope House is available at <http://www.hopehousetn.com/index.html>
